

CALANKA AFRICA

Africa is the second largest and second most populated continent in the world after Asia.

According to the United Nations, there are 54 countries in Africa today.

‘Calanka Afrika’ mean African flags in Somali.

Somali is one of the most widely spoken Afroasiatic languages spoken throughout Africa.

Below are some of 12 flags of some African countries.

Task 1: Look at the given flags and fill in the tables below.

Cape Verde	Chad

Comoros	Eritrea

Ivory Coast	Libya

Guinea	Mauritius

Namibia	Nigeria

Tunisia	Uganda

Which flags have....?	NAME OF COUNTRY or COUNTRIES
$\frac{1}{3}$ green
$\frac{1}{3}$ white
$\frac{1}{3}$ yellow
$\frac{1}{4}$ blue
$\frac{1}{4}$ red
$\frac{1}{3}$ orange
$\frac{2}{3}$ green

Flags having ...	Name of Countries	Fraction of countries
a Moon
one Star
more than one star
a Moon and one Star
a Sun
3 different colours

Task 2: Create a flag.

Create a flag that is made up of equal parts.

What fractions can you see in your flag?

What does your flag represent?